From the Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

Christmas Eve is just three days away. We will hear the angel say to the shepherds: "Do not be afraid; for behold, I proclaim to you good news of great joy that will be for all the people. For today in the city of David a savior has been born for you who is Christ and Lord. And this will be a sign for you: you will find an infant wrapped in swaddling clothes and lying in a manger" (Luke 2:10-12). Thus shepherds were told to look for a sign, and this sign is nothing extraordinary: simply a child born in a stable and laid in a feeding trough.

This is for us a sign of how God reigns - he does not come with power and outward splendor, ruling with strength - he wants from us only what this child wants from us - our love. We know that the great command of the old law is "you shall love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength." But how are we to love that which seems distant, which we can only catch a glimpse of. At Christmas we celebrate that God is no longer distant, no longer unknown, no longer beyond our reach.

He has become our neighbor - and not just any neighbor, but the weakest and poorest among us: an infant. In this way he teaches us to love the weak, to defend the poor, to support those who cannot support themselves. In a world dominated by arrogance and pride, the poverty of God is a message that we constantly need to hear.

The Christmas Mass schedule for our two parishes is:

Christmas Eve 4:00 PM at

St. Joseph Church

Christmas Eve 6:00 PM at

St. Anthony Church

Christmas Eve 10:00 PM at

St. Joseph Church

Christmas Day 8:30 AM at

St. Anthony Church

Christmas Day 11:00 AM at

St. Joseph Church

If you have not yet made it to confession, I will be in the confessional at St. Joseph Church on Monday and Tuesday from 3:00 PM to 5:00 PM.

God Bless You,

Fr. Power

Fourth Sunday of Advent TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

How many languages do you know? Most Americans might say they have a primary language, can follow the basics of another encountered in school or in the workplace, and maybe know the barest elements of a third. Yet nearly everyone is fluent in languages of symbol and ritual, languages that transcend the spoken word and may perhaps communicate more clearly. A dance, the delights of the table, the thrill of sport, the power of a painting, a shared silence on a surf-washed beach or under a desert sky, a burst of delighted applause, all communicate without a single word.

Sacrament empowers fluency in these languages. A little girl returning from Mass where a baby had been baptized was asked to summarize her day thus far. "I went to church, and some little baby became my brother." That's far more accurate than the adult's remark, "There was a baptism at Mass today." When we celebrate sacrament, Christ is always calling us into deeper fluency with the languages beyond speech. Sacraments open our senses to the presence of God precisely so we can respond to the depth of that love more fully.

—Rev. James Field

SAINT JOHN OF KANTY (1390-1473) December 23

Perhaps not many have heard of today's saint. A native of Poland, as a young man John proved himself to be a bright student at the University of Krakow. He then went on to become a priest and professor but was later prevented from teaching by rivals and became a parish priest instead. Yet, difficulties found him there as well, in the form of personal fear and opposition by parishioners. Those who took the time to get to know him were eventually won over by his humility and kindness. He eventually returned to Krakow to teach Scripture but led a sacrificial and austere life, keeping only the bare essentials and donating the rest to those in need. He slept little, ate little and gave much. His life is a great example of focusing on the essential - Jesus - and pruning out the unnecessary. Lord, grant us the grace to be more humble, selfless and kind. Saint John of Kanty, pray for us!
